

SPONGE BOB AND THE BULLY JELLYFISH

SB: Another beautiful day in Bikini Bottom (SB laugh)

Pat: Oh boy Sponge Bob a picnic. My favorite thing to do....next to sleeping and ah going out for icecream and ah the movies.... I love the movies and ah...(etc)

SB: I brought us crabbie patties our favorite lunch at our favorite picnic spot.

Pat: Oh boy..... my favorite crabbie patties..... of course I do love pizza and French fries and escargot we can't forget escargot everyone loves escargot.

SB: (SB laugh) Crabbie patties, made fresh today. (SB and Pat cram "patties" into mouth) enter jellyfish. Oh look Patrick jellyfish.....look how beautiful they are....and so graceful.

Pat: Let's give them a crabbie patty Sponge Bob.

SB: Great idea Patrick, your genius is showing again.

Pat: Oh no.... where? Did I forget to zip it up?

SB: (sb laugh) No Patrick. I mean it is a great way for us to make new friends, by sharing our crabbie patties. Here little Jellyfishes, have a nice fresh crabbie patty.

Pat: Yeah....here's one for you too.

SB: Look Patrick. Isn't it cute? They love them! (SB laughs)

Pat: Yeah. Looks like they loved them so much they want more.

SB: Sorry jellies....the rest are for our lunch. But come back tomorrow and well bring more to share with you.

JF: (make buzzing sound sting SB and Patrick and take all the crabbie patties)

Pat: Ah.... Sponge Bob they took all our crabbie patties.

SB: Those jellyfish ruined our picnic. What shall we do? Now I'm afraid to come back to my favorite picnic spot....what shall we do?

Pat: Yeah... those jellyfish are real bullies.

SB: I know, let's ask Mr. Crabs. He'll know how to handle bullies.

Pat: Yeah...takes one to know one.

Crab: (enters) Ahoy Sponge Bob, how goes it my boy?

SB: Not so good Mr. Crabs. Those jellyfish stole our crabbie patties!

Crab: STOLE you crabbie patties.....you mean without paying for them

SB: (laugh) Oh no Mr. Crabs. I had already paid for them.

Crab: Whew!

Pat: We were having a nice picnic and two big old jellyfish took our crabbie patties and zapped us too. And it hurts!!

Crab: Well boys there is only one thing you can do in a case like this. Tomorrow you set out 5-10 crabbie patties, when they come to get them..hit them with this hammer.

SB: Gee Mr. Crabs, won't that hurt them?

Crab: Well of course it will boy. That's the point! They'll rue the day they tangled with Sponge Bob and Patrick. Well I got a go. Let me know if you survive. (exit)

SB: That doesn't sound like such a good idea, Patrick. Beside I don't want to hurt the jellyfish.....I like jellyfish. I just want them to be kind.

Pat: Yeah and to stop Zapping us.

SB: Let's ask our best friend Squidwerd....I'm sure he'll have an idea.

SQ: (enters) Oh joy...Sponge Bob and Patrick, my two favorite people.

SB: Oh thanks Squidwerd, but I'm just not my joyous self today.

SQ: Oh my.....What could possibly have happened to squash your obnoxious ebullience?

Pat: We had our picnic ruined by a whole herd of giant bully jelly fish....there must have a 100 of them. We don't know what to do!!!!

SQ: You guys are such Nurkies, all you have to do is hide in that stupid pineapple house of yours, and don't ever come out. Yeah that's it don't ever come out again.... You don't want to be eaten by the giant jellyfish now do you? (Exits saying).....now wouldn't that just be the cats pajamas... no more Sponge Bob!!

Pat: Gee Sponge Bob if we hide inside we'll never get to go to our favorite picnic spot (cries) we'll never see the light of day, we'll die wretched old hermits, unknown, unloved and unemployed.....it's all so unfair!!!

SB: Oh Patrick, I'm sure that Squidwerd only meant until the jellyfish grew up and went away to college.

Pat: Oh?

SB: Here comes Mrs. Puff. Maybe we should ask Mrs. Puff her ideas.

Pat: Can't hurt....of course that's what I said about the jellyfish.

SB: Oh Mrs. Puff....Mrs. Puff we have a very important question to ask you.

Puff: Why Sponge Bob it's so nice to see you. What can I do for you?

SB: Mrs. Puff, Patrick and I were enjoying a picnic when 2 bully jellyfish zapped us and took our crabbie patties. We were wondering what we should do.

Puff: Well, Sponge Bob and Patrick, you did the right thing in coming to your teacher when bullies pick on you.

Pat: Is that like pickin' your nose?

Puff: The Bible tells us to love our enemies, but that doesn't mean we should let bullies take advantage of us or our friends.

SB: I guess your right Mrs. Puff.

Puff: If someone bigger or older than you makes you do something you don't want to do or makes you feel uncomfortable by threaten to hurt you...that's being a bully. If that happens you should always tell your teacher.

Pat: Well I'll be, for once we did the right thing.

Puff: I know the Big Kunaha Jellyfish, Queen Slimy Browning. and I'm sure that she would not want her children to be acting like this.....now you just don't worry your little sponge head about this any more. If you see those bullies you just treat them to a cup of human kindness, that will make God so happy. We'll let the Queen Slimy take care of this.

SB: Thank you Mrs. Puff.

Pat: Yeah.... Goodbye (exit Mrs. Puff).

SB: Did you hear that Patrick, Mrs. Puff will take care of everything!!

Pat: Hooray..... Sponge Bob what's a cup of human kindness?

SB: I don't know, but I still have a cup of pickle juice left over from lunch...if we see those guys maybe we should give them this?

Pat: Sounds like a good idea to me Sponge Bob.

SB: (enter Jellyfish) Oh look Patrick, there they are.

Pat: Oh little jellyfish....come here we have something for you.

SB & Pat: Have a cup of kindness on us!!! (throws cup full of confetti on first rows) Exit
